Model : ATZ UC11-1

Description : USB-C to VGA Adapter, 1080p@60Hz

USB Type-C is a specification for a reversible-plug connector for USB devices and USB cabling.

The Type-C plug connects to both hosts and devices, replacing various Type-B and Type-A connectors and cables with a standard meant to be future-proof.

This USB 3.1 Type-C to VGA adapter is ideal for your office, conference rooms, trade shows, home entertainment display, school and corporate training, and more. You can connect your Mac, PC or tablet equipped with Type C to VGA displays, such as HDTV, LCD monitors, projectors, high-definition television and more for HD video streaming. Enjoying your photos, your videos, your presentations, your games on the big screen.

It is low-profile and will not block adjacent ports on your computer. Same surface finish with your Macbook, which will be a perfect companion for your favorite laptop.
